CLAY POT DINNERS:

Served with our traditional Spanish fried rice and black beans.

Costillas de Cerdo $24

These ribs are marinated over 24 hours and slowly braised in their own juices until they become lightly crispy on the outside and tender throughout.

Carne Chorizada $18

The quintessential Nicaraguan dish in which ground sirloin is slowly simmered in a stew of onions, garlic, tomatoes, Latin spices and tropical vegetables.

Pollo Machada $18

A flavorful dish of shredded herb chicken marinated in savory spices and slowly simmered in a stew of seasonal vegetables.

Camarones a la Brazas $22

In this dish we marinate shrimp mustard, sherry and fresh dill, wrap it in bacon and fire grill.

Arroz con Pollo $16

The most typical of all dishes, and one that is found in one variation or another in every Latin country, this rice dish is made with a sauce of tomatoes, olives, petite peas, and shredded herb chicken. Served with fried plantains and encortido in place of rice and black beans.

Arroz y Frijoles $14

For those who prefer a vegetarian meal, this hearty dish includes rice, black beans, encortido and fried plantains.
